4. If I have a contact saved on my phone, I want to be able to call him/her using voice control.
5. If I need to search for a contact on my phone I want it to be an easy task to do by clicking, and have the option to do it by voice control.
6. I want to reach my most important and my most called contacts easy and fast.
7. I want to be able to see my latest calls.
8. I want a message inbox with my latest messages showed, where I can play the latest message from a contact directly from that view. I also want to press on a specifik conversation and get the whole conversation with that contact (just like in an ordinary message inbox).
